我們包覆你的生活!
We cover your lifestyle!

Established in 1973, Hsin Jung Fiber Industry Co., Ltd. is a dedicated manufacturer specializing in the production of composite elastic yarn. With over four decades of experience, we take pride in offering five core competitive advantages: customized solutions, prompt delivery, exceptional quality, remarkable elasticity, and substantial production capacity.

Our extensive research and development efforts allow us to provide tailored recommendations that align with our customers' unique yarn requirements. Equipped with diverse facilities, we offer a seamless service experience from development to sampling and large-scale production.

We serve a wide range of industries, including weaving, circular knitting, warp knitting, sweaters, underwear, footwear, socks, and ribbons. Our focus is on enhancing products based on their distinct characteristics, ensuring our customers' offerings stand out with notable differentiation.

At Hsin Jung Fiber, we are committed to delivering exceptional service and helping our customers bring their unique vision to life.
