

RICH-Y®

Grandetex Development Co., Ltd. Functional Textile Expert

GrandeTex offers functional fabric for workwear, athleisure, outdoor and indoor products.

With the development of human civilization, topics like “Eco-friendly” have become the mainstream in all kinds of economic models. And this is what GrandeTex is continuously working on and the products with BlueSign, Oeko-Tex and GRS certificates are not the only way to show how we do for our earth.

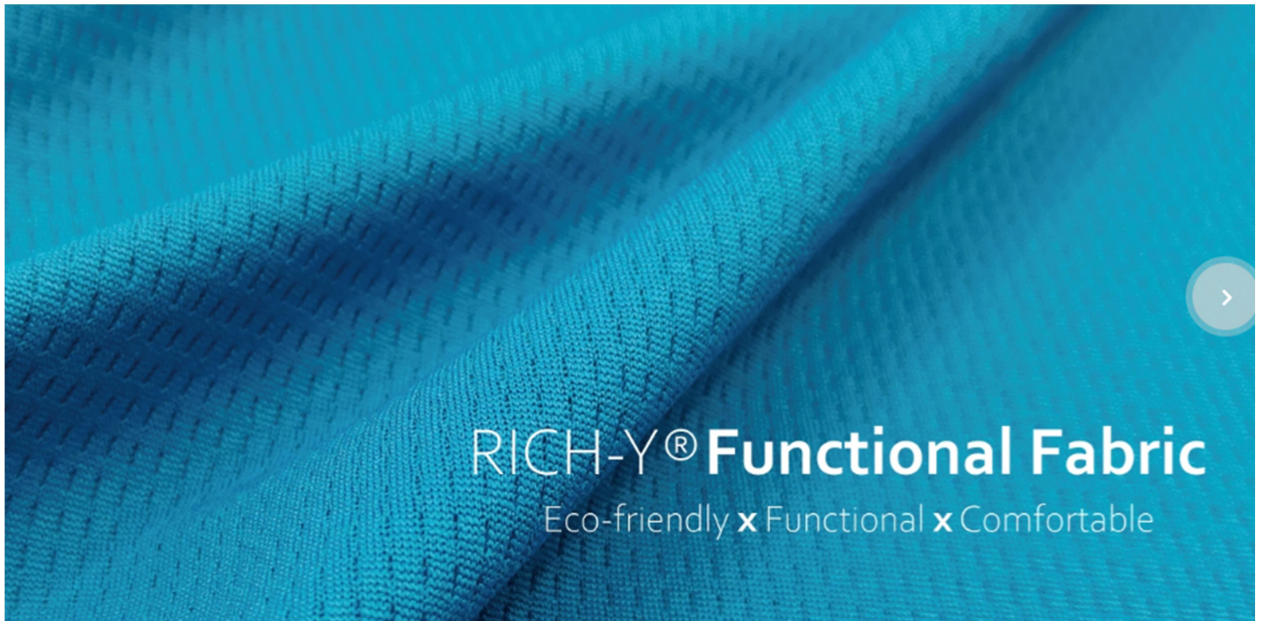

This year, GrandeTex can do something more! Besides the collections of functional yarn - Rich-y® yarn & Solution Dyed Rich-y®, we are so excited to roll out our new invention, yarn - Secao®, which contains the perfect solution for practicality and environmental issues and also perfectly implements the circular economy.
